A large party of more than a score of guests was the result of the first of the series of "rubber cups" played by Mrs. McKinlay, Clarke, Apple and Glassford winning the prize, consisting of silk stockings. Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Ennis, at the prettily decorated tea table, served the delicious salad and coffee. At the close of the afternoon the honored guests were presented with dainty Japanese silk bags as souvenirs of the occasion. The guests were Mesdames Nye, Bailey, Kennon, Glassford, and Mr. Albert Gillespie, Mr. Rob-

Schofield Society

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 4. Since the good weather has returned to Schofield and General Carter's sympathetic speech of last week to the officers of the garrison, we all feel greatly cheered up and able to see a number of the attractions of the station. Quoting from General Carter's speech:

"I remember this post as it was five years ago, and I am sorry to see how little has been done toward the comfort and welfare of the officers and men who have the work to do here. You may tell your wives, when you go home that in my opinion they all deserve medals for coming out and living under the conditions found here. I have never seen conditions of this kind that were not improved by the army women."

I have been brought up amid the traditions and intrigues of the war department, and if I do not succeed in bettering the situation, you may know that it is because I have been brought up in the war department, and if I do not succeed in bettering the situation, you may know that it is because I have been brought up in the war department.

Hunt, Livingston, Ennis, Stone, McCleary, Bennett, Miss Roe, Mrs. White, Mesdames Langtry, Scherer and Reichmann.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Mason entertained very prettily at the Cavalry Club in honor of her sister, Miss Harriet Ellis. At 2 o'clock those guests invited to play auction bridge began a series of interesting games. Those present were Mesdames O'Shea, Holcomb, Chitty, Gander, Kieffer, Baker, Scherer, Glassford, Rienzhausen, McKinlay, Martin, Sines, Gardenshire, Fair, Apple, Harbold, Hopkins, Tinker, Bechtel, White, Rich, Cook, Bennett, Banker, Bailey, and the Misses Roe, Hopkins and Ellis; Mrs. Baker was the lucky winner of the first prize, a handsome Satsuma vase. Mrs. McKinlay won second, a Satsuma bowl and teakwood pedestal, and Mrs. Harbold was made happy with an exquisite Satsuma cup and saucer. At 4 o'clock tea was served at flower-decked tables, in which the gentlemen arriving at that time participated. Later the Artillery band played, and dancing was enjoyed.

Sunday, Judge and Mrs. E. M. Watson and Major De Laney motored out from town to be the guests for the day of Capt. and Mrs. Apple.

Mrs. Hunt on Saturday gave a delightful auction party, entertaining friends of the garrison as a farewell before sailing for home on Tuesday of this week. The guests were Mesdames Kennon, Willard, Sturges, Gore, Reichmann, Mitchell, Butts, Harrison, Neal, Frankenberger, Naylor, Mapes, Beach, Gano, Langtry, Livingston, Hall, Novak and the Misses Reichmann and Langtry. The prizes were exquisite silver compotes and were won by Mesdames Reichmann, Hall, Gose, Willard and Miss Reichmann.

Sunday, Mrs. Novak was hostess at a dinner for Mesdames Livingston and Hunt, Miss Reichmann and Lieutenants Meek and Watrous.

The ladies' tennis tournament opened on Tuesday afternoon of this week on the infantry courts. A number of single and double sets are to be played. Colonel McGunagle, a tennis enthusiast, has offered the prizes, which will be a loving cup for the winner of the singles and a pair of rackets to the winning team of the doubles. Those entering the tournament are Mesdames Sturges, Hopkins, Mason, Hunt, Cook, Naylor, Beard, Rich, Gano, King, Misses Ellis, Reichmann, Moody and Hopkins, and Mesdames Conklin, Nichols and Pillow, who will come out from town.

Mrs. McCleave has come to Schofield to visit her son, Lieut. McCleave. Recently, she has been visiting her other son, Capt. McCleave, of the 2nd Infantry at Shafter.

Mrs. McCleave gave a tennis luncheon on Tuesday in honor of the ladies from town, Mesdames Conklin, Pillow and Nichols, who are entered in the tennis tournament.

Miss Holcomb entertained the Cavalry-Artillery Auction Club on Tuesday.

Mrs. Kennon gave a delightful luncheon on Wednesday, entertaining Mesdames Menohier, Reichmann, Neal, McCleave, Holabird, Grunkshank, Stone, Ennis, Wygant, Langtry and Mitchell, and the Misses Reichmann, Langtry, Tatt, Carpenter, Wilson, Sherman and Bull.

Mrs. Noble has been taken suddenly ill with appendicitis, and it is feared that it may be necessary to take her to the hospital at Shafter.

Capt. and Mrs. Frankenberger were hosts of a greatly enjoyed auction party on the evening of April 1st. Upon entering the house a large sign conspicuously hung "April First" gave warning that all might not be as is usual in the ordinary card party. The first surprise was encountered after the play began in missing very necessary trumps, causing anxious searches on the four and elsewhere. Every table was nicely "taken in," after which the game progressed as usual with new decks. The prize-winning ladies and gentlemen were Mrs. Hopkins and Mrs. Clarke, the lucky recipients of dainty glass vases. The winning gentlemen were Capt. Hopkins and Lieut. Huntley, who were given an attractive brass paper-cutter and inkwell. According to the April First scheme, the winning scores were the lowest in point of number. A delicious buffet supper was served at the close of the evening. The guests included Capt. and Mrs. Hopkins, Capt. and Mrs.

Mason, Miss Ellis, Miss Hopkins, Lieut. and Mrs. Marr, Lieut. and Mrs. McKinlay, Mrs. Clarke, Lieut. and Mrs. Glassford, Lieuts. Black, Huntley, Jones and Winton.

Last Monday evening Miss Gertrude Hopkins was hostess at a buffet supper given in the Cavalry Club before the hop, complimenting Miss Harriet Ellis, Mrs. Mason's recently arrived sister. The guests were Col. and Mrs. Sturges, Lieut. and Mrs. Neal, Lieut. and Mrs. Martin, the Misses Winans, Short, Harrison, Carpenter, Reichmann, Ellis, Bull, Wilson, Sherman, Langtry, Capt. Townsend and Williams; Lieuts. Samuelson, Robertson, Hinemon, Fales, Owens, Richards, Hall, Deshon, Daby, Huntley, Winters, Maxwell, Lyster, Rosevear, Enyart and Sadler.

The Misses Taft of Oakland, Cal., are spending two or three days in the garrison as guests of Miss Charlotte Reichmann.

Mrs. Walter C. Short entertained on Thursday afternoon, giving an action bridge party of ten tables for friends of the garrison. Mrs. Beard won the first prize, a pair of dainty slipper buckles; Mrs. Mason the second, a silver picture frame, and Miss Parker, "consolation," a pair of silk stockings.

Mrs. Marshall Super has been confined to her home with an attack of neuritis, but is now improving.

Hilo Society Notes

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] HILO, April 3.—Mr. P. Wickander, foreman of the Hackfeld lumber yard, entertained Albin Hartman, the diving expert from Pearl Harbor, and Evert Nymander, the San Francisco pianoman and quondam journalist, last Tuesday evening. They all spoke Swedish which Mr. and Mrs. Wickander have not done before for the last 20 years, according to report.

"The German Bachelor Club" consisting of Landes, Kellner, Weber and Koehnen entertained a number of their friends last Saturday night at cards. The party was given as a house warming for the new quarters of the club members, they having moved into the larger of the Hapal houses on Pittman street, and in honor of F. W. Koehnen, who only recently returned from Germany. A pleasant, sociable evening was enjoyed by all present at the club affair.

Miss Dora Austin was party host to her high school friends and a number of others at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Austin, last Saturday night. The young people spent the evening dancing and playing cards.

In honor of Miss Gertrude Sibley, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Holmes gave a dancing party at their home last Tuesday evening at which there were nearly 50 couples present. So enjoyable was the social affair that dancing was continued until an early morning hour. Miss Sibley has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rev. George Laughton for the past five months, coming to the islands with them when the minister was called to Hilo. She will leave for Honolulu on Monday where she will take passage on the Matsushita for her home in San Francisco.

Ten or 12 couples surprised A. Oak last Tuesday evening on the occasion of his birthday at his home on Popoia street. All the men and ladies present are members of the Council V. P. Formosa 28 of Royal A. B. A. M. Inc., of which Oak is the supreme inspector. The guests at the surprise party presented the recipient of their friendship with a gold watch fob on which is engraved the emblem of the society. After the presentation, those present spent the evening at cards.

YOUNG HOTEL ROOF GARDEN CONCERT TONIGHT

The weekly concert by Professor Carl Miltner's Orchestra will be given this (Saturday) evening on the Roof Garden of the Alexander Young Hotel, beginning at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.—advertisement.

Cult of the Guest-room

[Before the guest arrives, the perfect hostess (who has taken a correspondence course in hospitality) inspects her guest-room, and soliloquizes thus:]

"I've remembered, I've remembered. The new embroidered spread. The towels cross-stitched in designs of navy blue and red. It always seems so much too small. The 'guest towel' of today—Perhaps that's why the modern guest Won't make a longer stay."

"I've remembered, I've remembered. The nesagey, stiff and tight. The reading-lamp with cretonne shade. That throws a ghastly light. The 'Kind Words' calendar I've hung. And by the hand-glass set Some bargain-sale cologne . . . oh dear! The price-mark's on it yet!"

"I've remembered, I've remembered. Pink sealing-wax to bring. Removed a 'cache' of spoons from 'twist. The mattress and the spring. 'Sleep Sweet Within This Quiet Room' I've had reframed; I've bought. For bedside books, 'Jane Eyre, La-cille.' And 'Gems of Modern Thought.'"

"I've remembered, I've remembered. A lot of details small. That I am very sure no guest Would ever want at all. But 'twould be shocking ignorance Of 'Fashion Journals' chat. To aim for solid comfort here. And let it go at that."

—Sarah Redington, in Harper's Magazine for April.

FREE RESTAURANT FOR UNEMPLOYED PROPOSED

STOCKTON—Stockton may open a free restaurant for the unemployed. A special committee composed of George Kincaid, W. H. Briggs and several women called upon District Attorney Folz, Sheriff Riecks and Chief of Police Briare and outlined temporary plans for dealing with the issue in general. The matter was given close attention by the county officials, and it is thought that something of a definite nature will be arrived at Tuesday, when further plans will be announced by the committee in charge. It is assumed from the statement of the committee that Stockton is in need of such an innovation.
